A Piece from the President

The Lowrie PTA is omnipresent. Well, maybe we cannot take it that far, but we are a lot of places these days. On Saturday, Josh Dalglish (Treasurer), Carrie Keith (VP of Fundraising) and I attended a state PTA training. We learned about digitally structuring financial records, facilitating effective meetings, and what efforts and programs PTA funds support. Committees are meeting and discussing objectives and planning efforts. Almost every time I go to Lowrie, I see parents working in the library; Divya Kollu and Teresa Chen come to my mind, though there are more. We are in classrooms, in the supply room, meeting in one another's kitchen, and gathering at local businesses. We see you when you're sleeping, we know when you're awake... well, maybe we can't take it that far, but we are inspired and appreciative of what Lowrie families and staff are doing for our school.

As we attend meetings and trainings and volunteer around Lowrie, may we keep the mission and purpose of Lowrie PTA in mind (see top of newsletter). We are growing our community and culture in an intentional way. The idea of infinite possibility comes to mind. We have the opportunity to create a school culture that is serving to a cause greater than the individual, truly celebratory, strengthening and connected. The time and resources you contribute is part of this creative effort and it's what gives us our omnipresence.
